

David Glennon - Implementation Co Lead

David is Managing Director of DoubleD.io, a digital accelerator for the built environment, bringing together a network of experts to build capability and capacity for digital transformation and project delivery. Typical services include digital strategy, innovation incubator creation, good practice digital project delivery for BIM and coaching for start-ups.

David is also on the Executive Board of the UK BIM Alliance, co-leading the Implementation workstream and Chair of the Technology Group with a mandate to make Level 2 BIM “Business as Usual” for the UK industry. David also chair of the buildingSMART UK & Ireland chapter.

David has more than 20 years’ experience in the construction industry, with a focus on leading transformation programmes and change initiatives for large, complex organisations. As Head of Digital for Arcadis in the UK, he led their digital programme including the delivery of platforms, digital innovation, data and analytics and ecosystem thinking. He has also the Director of Digital Project Delivery at AECOM, responsible for creating and implementing digital strategy across Europe, the Middle East, India and Africa. Prior to this, David held senior positions as Group Project Technologies
