The UK BIM Framework

To develop an approach to digital transformation, which allows us to understand and have control over the shift from analogue to digital

The Guidance is developing to support each released standard within the ISO 19650 series

It is published in multiple editions to reflect the incremental development plus catering for edits and wider industry feedback

The Guidance is available free of charge via <https://ukbimframework.org/>

Today's Speakers:

Lockdown; shifting collaboration.

Zane Ulhaq – Atkins / CDBB

With the UK in lockdown, collaboration in organisations and projects has had to change. This short talk looks at how Atkins is approaching the problem, with a particular focus on SafetIBase (a H&S collaborative tool), and what this lockdown might mean for us in the long-term.

Today's Speakers:

Lockdown; shifting collaboration.

Fiona Moore— Cirrus Consultant Services / CDBB

Construction Innovation Hub BIM Interoperability Expert Group Report – “Recommendations and Next Steps”.

An overview of the Interoperability report, its upcoming full publication, the recommendations and resultant workstreams
